

Patsy Cline was born Virginia Patterson Hensley on September 8th 1932. She played her final show at the age of 30 on March 3, 1963 in Kansas City, Kansas, before her fateful plane ride home; killing her, along with Cowboy Copas and Hawkshaw Hawkins on March 5, 1963.

It's been 60 years since we lost her and her music is STILL RELEVANT today!! It continues to touch the hearts of young and old! And I'm honored to help keep her music alive.
